Application Form: Minor in the History and Theory of Architecture

As a Minor in the History and Theory of Architecture, you will apply the tools and perspectives of "design thinking" to historical architecture, from description to sketching, diagramming and digital modeling. This will not only hone your skills as a designer by helping you analyze precedents and mine the past for ideas, but also prepare you for careers in historic preservation or teaching the history of architecture.

Application Requirements

- This Minor is only available to undergraduate students in the Architecture Program and the Art History and Archaeology Program (other majors by petition).

- Eligible students will have earned 60 credit hours (Junior standing).

- Students must have successfully completed ARCH 225 & 226, History of World Architecture I & II.

- Students must have a Maryland GPA of 3.0 or higher.

- Students shall submit this application along with an unofficial academic transcript and resume to the CPM Advisor in their college.

- Students must obtain the signatures of her/his Major Advisor and the CPM Advisor.

- Architecture CPM Advisor: Michele Lamprakos, Ph.D. (mlamprak@umd.edu)

- Art History and Archaeology CPM Advisor: TBA
