

INTENT TO PARTICIPATE

COLVIN INSTITUTE OF REAL ESTATE DEVELOPMENT 2023 CASE STUDY CHALLENGE

INTENT TO PARTICIPATE

The Colvin Case Study Challenge is a national intercollegiate real estate development retrospective case study competition for student teams enrolled full or part-time in a graduate or undergraduate program or in a real estate university sanctioned real estate club/organization. Students will select a recently completed real estate project (2016 or less) in their area to document. Details are in the Application Form attached.

The Challenge may be offered for (i) course credit, (ii) as part of a course's requirements, or (iii) as an extracurricular activity. The number of teams from an individual school or program is not limited. If you have a team(s) identified, please file the application, otherwise indicate your intent to field one or more teams by sending us the information below.

Complete this form and send by email or surface mail to: Carrie Chard, Assistant Director, Colvin Institute of Real Estate Development, University of Maryland, at cchard@umd.edu on or before August 25, 2023.

PARTICIPATING UNIVERSITY/COLLEGE (Please type or print)

University/College: _____

School or Program: _____

Faculty Advisor: _____

Email: _____

Telephone: _____

Number of teams: _____

CONTACT INFORMATION

Carrie Chard, Assistant Director
Colvin Institute of Real Estate Development
3835 Campus Drive
College Park, MD 20742
cchard@umd.edu
301-405-6322