

(SUB)URBAN UPRISING:

DECENTERING "THE URBAN" IN
DISCOURSES ON POLICING AND PROTEST

JUNE 26TH 2020
3:00 PM - 4:30 PM EST

The current movement against anti-Black racism and police violence has deep suburban roots. This conversation seeks to decenter "the urban" and ask instead what it means to think about policing and protest from a (sub)urban lens.

MODERATOR:

WILLOW S. LUNG-AMAM, PHD, ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR IN URBAN STUDIES AND PLANNING AT THE UNIVERSITY OF MARYLAND, COLLEGE PARK

PANELISTS:

Dr. Andrea S. Boyles

Associate Professor of Criminal Justice at Lindenwood University

Dr. R. L'Heureux Lewis-McCoy

Associate Professor of Sociology of education at New York University

Dr. Jodi Rios

Independent scholar, designer and activist

REGISTRATION: <https://bit.ly/37R7j5x>

WEBSITE: http://www.go.umd.edu/suburban\_uprising

SPONSORS:

