

Latinos in Heritage Conservation: Locating Equity & Social Justice in Historic Preservation

Sarah Zenaida Gould, PhD | Co-Chair, Latinos in Heritage Conservation
Director, Museo del Westside, San Antonio, Texas

Marvin Breckinridge Patterson Lecture

in conjunction with UMD Heritage Lectures

Thursday, February 21st | Lecture | 6:00 - 7:00 pm

Room 1111, Architecture Building

Sarah Zenaida Gould's lecture will consider the role of social justice in historic preservation, how we can increase equity in historic preservation, and current challenges to inclusion in preservation policy, education, and recruitment. She will describe the efforts of the national organization Latin@s in Heritage Conservation to increase Latino representation in and commitment to historic preservation.

Join us for a reception outside Room 1111, 5:00 - 6:00 pm.

Open to the public, no tickets required.

"Oral History for the Heritage Conservationist" by Dr. Sarah Zenaida Gould

Thursday, February 21st | Workshop* | 12:00 - 1:30 pm

Dean's Conference Room, Architecture Building

*Workshop will be open to UMD graduate students, faculty and staff only!

Lunch will be provided. Please RSVP to lsteeg@umd.edu by February 15th.

SCHOOL OF ARCHITECTURE,
PLANNING & PRESERVATION
HISTORIC PRESERVATION PROGRAM